communication having been read. Mr. Harper offered the following resolutions: Resolved. That the Mayor is hereby requested and empowered to employ such additional police force as he may deem requisite to preserve the publie peace and security of our citizens, and that said police be allowed the pay now given to the regular odice of the city.

Resolved, That the Presidents of the joint board of the City Council appoint a suitable committee of safety, composed of four citizens from each Ward, to act in conjunction with the authorities in preserving the public peace and executing the law, should the exigencies of the times re-

Resolved. That the committee of safety to be appointed by the President of this Board, be requested to report to Council from time to time, such measures as may be necessary more fully to protect the peace and safety of our citizens. On motion of Mr. Jamieson, the communication and resolutions were referred to a committee of two members from each Board of the City Council with instructions to report to a meeting of the Council this evening at So'clock. Messrs. Harper and Smoot were appointed on the part of this Board, said committee. A communication from the Overseers of the Poor

The committee to whom had been referred the communication of the Mayor, and the resolutions made a report recommending that authority be mittee of safety, or a majority of them to be appointed, the exigencies of the times require it: the compensation to be the same as that of the present police. The Mayor to have authority to designate one of the policemen, Superintendent or Captain, whose compensation shall be 25 cents perday additional. The report also recommends the appointment of two persons from each Ward, a committee of safe recommending that F. M. Weedon be permitted to ty, to advise with the Mayor in relation to the safety and good order of the city.
